FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The most powerful tool we have when it comes to teaching our children about the beauty of their sexuality in the digital age is conversation. Real, honest, “look them in the eyes” conversations about their deep questions. In the digital age, passive parenting is not an option — the internet never rests. Our Diocese has set aside this weekend as Safe Haven Sunday in order to provide free resources to assist you with confidently talking to your children about internet dangers, as well as their online and offline choices.

Safe Haven Sunday is celebrated through prayer and reflection within the context of the Mass. After Mass, we have booklets available at the hospitality desk entitled: Confident: Helping Parents Navigate Online Exposure. This book includes a free seven-day text-to-opt-in program that provides practical tips for caring adults to create safer digital environments for themselves and young people. Simply text SECURE to 66866 to begin receiving guidance today!

FESTIVAL OF FORGIVENESS. Pope Francis has described mercy as “the very foundation of the Church’s life.” During Lent 2020, the Church in the Diocese of Saint Cloud wants every person to experience the life-changing power of God’s mercy and love. On Friday, March 27 — the Friday of the Fourth Week of Lent — our diocese is again holding a “Festival of Forgiveness” during which the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available for extended periods at designated churches throughout the diocese. Parishioners are invited to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Friday, March 27, 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM and 5:00 - 8:00 PM in St. Mary’s Church. The Catholic faithful from our entire deanery, including those who have been away from the sacraments, are invited to participate in this special celebration.

BLESSINGS TO YOU THIS WEEK, FR. STEVE

AREA CATHOLIC COMMUNITY UPDATE - COME TO THE WATER CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

Our ACC Planning Council met on February 18. After some difficulty with our ACC name (Central Lakes Area Catholic Community), the ACC Planning Council has agreed to change our name. Our new name is now Come to the Water Catholic Community (CTTWCC). This name has two nice symbolic representations in the many lakes we have around Alexandria, Belle River and Osakis and in remembering our own baptism. We should receive word from the Diocesan Planning Office any day as far as the approval or recommendations for changes to our strategic plan. By the time this goes to print we may have already heard.

Once we receive approval, we will provide details on the goals and objectives; these will also be posted on the Diocesan website. Effective August 1, 2020, we will merge our 3 Parish Pastoral Councils into 1 ACC Pastoral Council. At the last meeting, the planning council tweaked the #s of representatives from each parish. The following will be the representation: Immaculate Conception (3), St. Mary’s (6), St. Nicholas (3). These numbers will make for an easier transition and better reflect the proportionate membership. In addition, the Pastoral Councils do not vote on recommendations, rather they achieve consensus. So, discussion continues until everyone can compromise and live with a proposed recommendation and comes to an agreement. So, yes, 1 person’s strong disapproval can stop a recommendation. Again, the Pastoral Council is an advisory body only and does not set policy or make any final decisions.

THANK YOU to the following for serving the funeral luncheon of:

JUSTICE PEACE AND THE INTEGRITY OF CREATION (JPIC): Act justly, walk humbly with your God. Micah 6:8
During this season of Lent, we are encouraged to give up something or make a change in our life. This can be accomplished by giving up some food and donating to the "Let's Bag Hunger" campaign held during the month of March. Donations will be given to the Outreach Food Shelf in Alexandria.

There are bags available in the Commons Area that you can take, fill with food or paper products, and return to the designated area. St. Mary's parishioners have been very generous in the past, but the need for food continues in our community daily. Monetary gifts are also accepted (envelopes are in the basket with the bags). Please place envelopes in offertory baskets.

Thanks in advance for helping feed the hungry!

WEDNESDAY
MARCH
11

God calls us to love others patiently (1 Cor. 13). Pope Francis points out that when we think others should be perfect or that everything should turn out our way, we become impatient and act out in anger. This makes it difficult to be with others and can turn families into “battlegrounds.” Patience requires a “deep compassion” for others that accepts them for who they are, not what they do for us. (The Joy of Love, 92)

How can you cultivate patience in your life this Lent?

THURSDAY
12

The Lenten season is a particularly good time of year to rededicate ourselves to living out the works of mercy and reflecting on God’s mercy for us. Lent is a time to reawaken our conscience, which may have become preoccupied or tired amidst the poverty and need that surrounds us. (Lenten Message, 10/4/15)

Who in my life is most in need of God’s mercy right now? How can I offer it to that person?

FRIDAY
13

About one-third of all food that is produced is wasted. Pope Francis decries our “culture of waste,” in which we have become used to living with excess and insensitive to what we squander while others go hungry. When food is thrown away, he reasons, it’s like it is being “stolen from the table of the poor.” Not long ago, our grandparents’ generation were careful not to waste even the smallest portions of food. (6/5/13)

Amidst your fasting this Lent, commit to reducing your food waste, by not overbuying and by storing and using leftovers more thoughtfully.

SATURDAY
14

Jesus invites us to make a “radical about-face” in our lives and “abandon compromises with evil,” says Pope Francis. He says almost all of us act as hypocrites sometimes, and that we may then justify our choices by reasoning that we’re good, church-going people. While Jesus is patient and forgiving with our failings, he also wants more from us. (2/28/16)

Where in your life are you making “compromises” with which Jesus would disagree?

Lent with Pope Francis

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT ✠ WITH REFLECTIONS BY PAUL CANAVESE

SUNDAY
15

The story of Jesus and the Samaritan woman centers on the experience of thirst, and not just for water. As humans, we desire many things: truth, love, justice, freedom, and much more. While we can somewhat satisfy our thirst for these desires, deep within us we are hard-wired to seek out “something more.” That deeper thirst can only be slaked by God through Jesus. (1/25/15)

Pray to God today for living water that will satisfy your deepest thirst.

MONDAY
16

Pope Francis laments the state of many neighborhoods, which have become places of individualism, isolation, defensiveness, and mistrust. “Jesus desires to pour out an abundance of life upon our cities,” he says. Our neighborhoods should connect residents to each other and help us support each other, especially those in need. This is the Gospel way. (The Joy of the Gospel, 75)

What can you do this week to foster more connection and community in your neighborhood?

TUESDAY
17

The first step in living a Gospel-based life, states Pope Francis, is learning to blame ourselves. We’re very good at blaming other people and playing innocent, but for us to become better people we need to become aware of what we do wrong and what we are capable of doing wrong. The next step is to ask God for mercy and forgiveness. (3/2/15)

This Lent, pray for the grace to learn how to “blame yourself” and recognize the ways in which you sin or are capable of sinning.

18

Pope Francis says it's important for us to be loving in the way we treat family members who aren't as committed to or knowledgeable about our faith. He is concerned that sometimes "supposedly mature believers" are "unbearably arrogant" to others in their family. The love of Christ, on the other hand, is based in humility, concern, and understanding. That kind of love attracts people to the Church. (The Joy of Love, 98)

How do you relate to those, especially in your extended family, who may be on the margins of the Church?

19

Are you a "Yes, but..." Christian? Pope Francis says there is a tendency for some "lukewarm" Christians to insist on wanting things their way instead of God's way. They're willing to accept salvation, but only on their own conditions. They'll admit God has graced them, but always have something to complain about. But relationship with God is a package deal. (3/24/15)

In what ways do you try to put limits on God and how God can love you?

FRIDAY
20

The overwhelming influence of digital media has resulted in a noisy cacophony of information overload and confusing "mental pollution." Wise decision-making requires thoughtful reflection, self-examination, open dialogue, and an honest, generous desire to understand others. (On Care for Our Common Home, 47)

Is your use of social media or other online media overloading you or making you confused? What healthy limits can you put in place?

21

Halfway through the season of Lent, Pope Francis asks us to assess whether we are on the path of life or "the path of lies." "How many locks do I still have on my heart?" Where do we find our joy: in generously reaching out to help others or in staying wrapped up in ourselves? (2/25/16)

What is your own assessment of your progress on your Lenten journey? Do you need to recalibrate?

Lent with Pope Francis

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT ✠ WITH REFLECTIONS BY PAUL CANAVESE

22

The Gospel of the man born blind tells the story of one person who takes a road from blindness to light, and others who take a road to greater blindness. The Pharisees were so convinced that they already had the light in their possession, and did everything possible to close their hearts and deny the light of Christ. (3/30/14)

Is your heart fully open to Christ's light? Where might Christ be showing up in your life, perhaps unexpectedly?

23

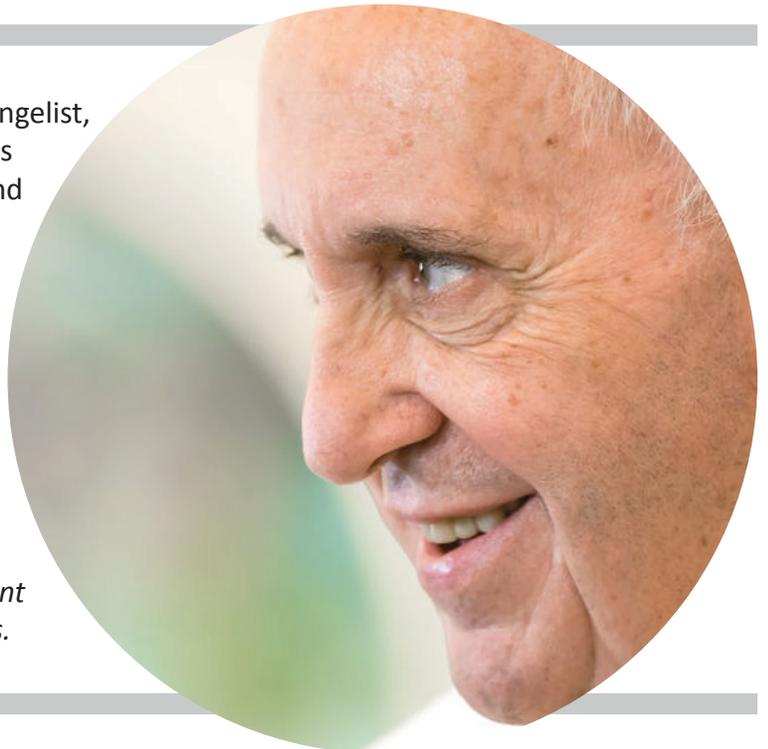

In reflecting on the sinfulness and corruption that overtook King David, Pope Francis stressed that when we are most secure, powerful, comfortable, and/or successful, we can be the most vulnerable to falling away from God and ultimately to "corruption." It is in these times that we need to remain humble and remember our dependence on God. (1/29/16)

Do you need God in your life, or do you think you can go it alone? How might you take a step toward humility and recognizing your dependence on God?

24

Pope Francis is the ultimate evangelist, wanting to share the Good News with everyone he encounters and "stir up enthusiasm" for all Christians to do the same with "fervor, joy, generosity, courage, boundless love, and attraction!" This excitement comes from the Holy Spirit when it burns in our hearts. (The Joy of the Gospel, 261)

Challenge yourself to be a little (or a lot) less tentative or hesitant in sharing your faith with others.

Help Support Our School by Participating in:

The fact that Lent and National Nutrition Month happen in March may be just a coincidence. Fasting, abstinence from certain foods, and not eating between meals makes us aware of how important a nutritious diet is for our health. While we rarely focus on nutrition during our prayer life, let's spend some time looking at the connection.

1. It is tempting to make Lent a time of strenuous fasting and prayer, but keep it simple and focused. Each year the Church revisits the principle events of the life of Christ, and each year we will have time to ponder these mysteries. Don't try to cram it all in one year.
 - † Try not to do two things at once. Don't eat while watching TV, or when driving. You will appreciate each bite even more...
 - † Keep a food diary noting what you eat, the kind and amount of food you eat, especially during different times of the day. You may be surprised!
2. Lent is a time to remind us of our weaknesses. It may be painful to realize we are one meal away from hunger, but it helps recognize how helpless we are.
 - † Get active, take the dog for a walk, climb the stairs, take an extra lap around the store when grocery shopping.
 - † Flip the package over and really look at the nutritional label. It might be confusing at first, but look at the size of a serving, and the amount of calories, fat, sugar and salt. Look at the ingredients.....can you even pronounce some of them?
3. Reach out with charity. When we experience hunger during Lent we are able to understand those in need throughout the year. Almsgiving is more than throwing a few extra dollars in the collection plate, it's about sharing God's unconditional love and helping those in need, without judgement.
 - † Cook a meal and share it with someone. Prepare a special meal for somebody you care about, or better yet, for someone in need.
 - † Help out at a local food shelf or soup kitchen. You'll reap many rewards of your labor!
4. Love like Christ. Just as Jesus spent 40 days in the desert, Lent brings us closer to asking for his help. It allows us to see how we can help others.
 - † Don't have a side dish of guilt. If you eat too much at a meal, acknowledge it and move on.
 - † Reward yourself with something other than food. Celebrate accomplishments with something that makes you smile, talking with a friend, seeing a movie.

When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the Twelve. And while they were eating, he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me." They were very sad and began to say to him one after the other, "Surely not I, Lord?" - MATTHEW 26:20-22
