WHAT IS THIS MINISTRY?

Greeters are the first reception into the community celebration, particularly for those who are guests and visitors. Greeters are warm, hospitable people with positive attitudes and compassionate expressions. Greeters help people connect to the larger community.

WHO CAN VOLUNTEER?

Greeters can be any family, young couple, or single person who has the gift of hospitality. Greeters share themselves with others in a way that expresses God's love through Christ to help set the tone of the upcoming worship service.

WHAT IS THE COMMITMENT?

- Greeters serve once a month or once every other month.
- Greeters will be assigned a team captain at the Mass time they prefer.
- Greeters are asked to attend one retreat training session a year.

HOW DO I GET STARTED?

Initial training and formation is provided.
