

Come to the Water

AREA CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

St. Nicholas, Belle River

Immaculate Conception, Osakis

The Church of St. Mary, Alexandria

4th Sunday of Easter | APRIL 21, 2024

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus,

The Good Shepherd is one of the most commonly portrayed images of Jesus. Jesus as shepherd was subtle enough to use as a secret Christian symbol during the early persecutions of the Church. Jesus the Good Shepherd remains one of the most appealing images for us today. As much as we would not like to be compared to sheep, we do love our Good Shepherd.

Jesus used images that were accessible to all people. Everyone can picture a shepherd surrounded by his flock. But the people of Jesus' time knew that the life of a shepherd was one of constant vigilance; not every pastoral scene is peaceful. They would also have pictured the Good Shepherd fighting off lions and wolves to defend His sheep. Jesus loves us and protects us like the best of all shepherds, and we can take comfort in that imagery.

Jesus goes beyond any human shepherd, however, by His Death and Resurrection for us. A human shepherd, having died to protect the sheep, cannot protect them any longer. Jesus, being God as well as Man, is able to die for us and continue to care for us. He can even save us from the ultimate predator: sin and death itself.

I would like to see someone paint an image of Jesus the Good Shepherd fighting off the Grim Reaper, His rod and staff clashing with the Reaper's scythe. We have images of St. Michael the Archangel stomping on Satan and St. George slaying the dragon. We even see Mary, Our Lady of Peace, crushing the serpent's head with her heel, but we rarely see Jesus portrayed as a shepherd in action against our greatest enemies. Why is this? Jesus is the Good Shepherd Who is willing to lay down His life for the sheep, so why do we hesitate to call upon Him to protect us from evil? Why do we not trust Jesus to conquer even the evil within our own hearts?

Jesus has conquered sin and death; He feeds us with His Body and Blood; He has given us the Holy Spirit to strengthen us in holiness. He is our defender, protector, and loving savior. He has already won the battle; our enemies have no power over Him. Even our desire to call upon God's grace begins with the inspiration of His Holy Spirit. We have every reason to take comfort in His words: "I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep." May we have the courage to cry out in every need: "Jesus, Good Shepherd, save me!"

*Peace in Christ,
Father Matthew Kuhn, pastor*
