First Reading

Reading I from the Old Testament

- 2 Maccabees 12:43-46 – He acted in an excellent and noble way as he had the resurrection of the dead in view.
- Job 19:1, 23-27a – I know that my Vindicator lives.
- Ecclesiastes 3:1-12 – God has made everything appropriate to its time.
- Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, 11a (Short Form) – God has made everything appropriate to its time.
- Wisdom 3:1-9 – As sacrificial offerings he took them to himself.
- Wisdom 3:1-6, 9 (Short Form)
- Wisdom 4:7-15 – An unsullied life, the attainment of old age.
- Sirach 44:1-2, 10b-15 – Their bodies are buried in peace, but their name lives on and on.
- Isaiah 25:6-9 – He will destroy death forever.
- Isaiah 25:6a, 7-9 (Short Form) – He will destroy death forever.
- Lamentations 3:17-26 – It is good to hope in silence for the saving help of the Lord.
- Daniel 12:1-3 – Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake.

Reading I from the New Testament during Easter Time

- Acts 10:34-43 – He is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead.
- Acts 10:34-36, 42-43 (Short Form)
- Revelation 14:13 – Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.
- Revelation 20:11—21:1 – The dead were judged according to their deeds.
- Revelation 21:1-5a, 6b-7 – There shall be no more death.

A reading from the second Book of Maccabees:

Judas, the ruler of Israel,
then took up a collection among all his soldiers,
amounting to two thousand silver drachmas,
which he sent to Jerusalem
to provide for an expiatory sacrifice.

In doing this he acted in a very excellent and noble way,
inasmuch as he had the resurrection in mind;
for if he were not expecting the fallen to rise again,
it would have been superfluous and foolish
to pray for the dead.

But if he did this with a view to the splendid reward
that awaits those who had gone to rest in godliness,
it was a holy and pious thought.

Thus he made atonement for the dead
that they might be absolved from their sin.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the book of Job:

Job answered and said:

Oh, would that my words were written down!

Would that they were inscribed in a record:

That with an iron chisel and with lead

they were cut in the rock forever!

As for me, I know that my Vindicator lives,

and that he will at last stand forth upon the dust;

and from my flesh I will see God:

I will see for myself,

my own eyes, not another's, will behold him:

my inmost being is consumed with longing.

The word of the Lord.

A reading from the book of Ecclesiastes

There is an appointed time for everything,
and a time for every affair under the heavens.

A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them;
a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.

A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to be silent, and a time to speak.

What advantages have workers from their toil?

I have considered the task which God has appointed us to be busied about.

God has made everything appropriate to its time,
and has put the timeless into their hearts,
without people ever discovering the work which God has done.

I recognize that there is nothing better than to be glad and to do well in life.

For every man and woman to eat and drink and enjoy the fruit of all their labor is a gift of God.

I recognized that whatever God does will endure forever;
there is no adding to it or taking from it.

Thus has God done that he may be revered.

What now is, has already been;
what is to be, already is;
and God restores what would otherwise be displaced.

The Word of the Lord

A Reading from the book of Ecclesiastes

There is an appointed time for everything,
and a time for every affair under the heavens.

A time to give birth, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.

A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to tear down, and a time to build.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them;
a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.

A time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away.

A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to be silent, and a time to speak.

A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

God has made everything appropriate to its time.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Book of Wisdom:

The souls of the just are in the hand of God,
and no torment shall touch them.

They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead;
and their passing away was thought an affliction
and their going forth from us, utter destruction.

But they are in peace.

For if before men, indeed, they be punished,
yet is their hope full of immortality;

Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed,
because God tried them
and found them worthy of himself.

As gold in the furnace, he proved them,
and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself.

In the time of their visitation they shall shine,
and shall dart about as sparks through stubble;

They shall judge nations and rule over peoples,
and the Lord shall be their King forever.

Those who trust in him shall understand truth,
and the faithful shall abide with him in love:

Because grace and mercy are with his holy ones,
and his care is with his elect.

The word of the LORD.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Book of Wisdom:

The righteous one, though he die early, shall be at rest.

For the age that is honorable comes not with the passing of time,
nor can it be measured in terms of years.

Rather, understanding passes for gray hair,
and an unsullied life is the attainment of old age.

The one who pleased God was loved,
living among sinners, was transported—

Snatched away, lest wickedness pervert his mind
or deceit beguile his soul;

For the witchery of paltry things obscures what is right and the whirl of desire transforms the innocent mind.

Having become perfect in a short while,
he reached the fullness of a long career;

for his soul was pleasing to the Lord,
therefore he sped him out of the midst of wickedness.

But the people saw and did not understand,
nor did they take this into account.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the book of Sirach: (pronounced "SIH-rock")

I will now praise the godly,
our ancestors, in their own time,

The abounding glory of the Most High's portion,
his own part, since the days of old.

Their virtues have not been forgotten.

Their wealth remains in their families,
their heritage with their descendants.

Through God's covenant their family endures,
and their offspring for their sake.

And for all time their progeny will endure,
their glory will never be blotted out;

Their bodies are buried in peace,
but their name lives on and on.

At gatherings their wisdom is retold,
and the assembly proclaims their praises.

The word of the Lord.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah:

On this mountain the LORD of hosts
will provide for all peoples
A feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines.

On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,
The web that is woven over all nations.
He will destroy death forever.

The Lord GOD will wipe away
the tears from all faces;
The reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the LORD has spoken.

On that day it will be said:
“Indeed, this is our God; we looked to him, and he saved us!
This is the LORD to whom we looked;
let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!”

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah:

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the book of the prophet Daniel:

“At that time there shall arise Michael,
the great prince,
guardian of your people;

It shall be a time unsurpassed in distress
since the nation began until that time.

At that time your people shall escape,
everyone who is found written in the book.

Many of those who sleep
in the dust of the earth shall awake;

Some to everlasting life,
others to reproach and everlasting disgrace.

But those with insight shall shine brightly
like the splendor of the firmament,

And those who lead the many to justice
shall be like the stars forever.”

The word of the Lord.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles:

Then Peter proceeded to speak and said,
“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality.

Rather, in every nation
whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.

You know the word that he sent to the Israelites
as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ,
who is Lord of all,

what has happened all over Judea,
beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached,

how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy Spirit and power.
He went about doing good
and healing all those oppressed by the devil,
for God was with him.

We are witnesses of all that he did
both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem.
They put him to death by hanging him on a tree.

This man God raised on the third day
and granted that he be visible, not to all the people,
but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance,
who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

He commissioned us to preach to the people
and testify that he is the one appointed by God
as judge of the living and the dead.

To him all the prophets bear witness,
that everyone who believes in him
will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles:

Then Peter proceeded to speak and said,

“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality.

whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.

You know the word that he sent to the Israelites

as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ,

who is Lord of all,

He commissioned us to preach to the people

and testify that he is the one appointed by God

as judge of the living and the dead.

To him all the prophets bear witness,

that everyone who believes in him

will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Book of Revelation:

I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write this:

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on."

"Yes," said the Spirit,

"let them find rest from their labors,

for their works accompany them."

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Book of Revelation:

I saw a large white throne and the one who was sitting on it.

The earth and the sky fled from his presence
and there was no place for them.

I saw the dead, the great and the lowly,
standing before the throne, and scrolls were opened.
Then another scroll was opened, the book of life.
The dead were judged according to their deeds,
by what was written in the scrolls.

The sea gave up its dead;
then Death and Hades gave up their dead.
All the dead were judged according to their deeds.

Then Death and Hades were thrown into the pool of fire.
This pool of fire is the second death.

Anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the pool of fire.

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth.
The former heaven and the former earth had passed away,
and the sea was no more.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Book of Revelation:

I saw a new heaven and a new earth.

The former heaven and the former earth had passed away,
and the sea was no more.

I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem,
coming down out of heaven from God,
prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,
“Behold, God’s dwelling is with the human race.
He will dwell with them and they will be his people
and God himself will always be with them as their God.

He will wipe every tear from their eyes,
and there shall be no more death or mourning,
wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away.”

The one who sat on the throne said,
“Behold, I make all things new.”

He said to me,
“I am the Alpha and the Omega,
the beginning and the end.
To the thirsty I will give a gift from the spring of life-giving water.

The victor will inherit these gifts,
and I shall be his God, and he will be my son.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Book of Revelation:

I saw a new heaven and a new earth.

I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

“Behold, God’s dwelling is with the human race.

He will dwell with them and they will be his people
and God himself will always be with them as their God.

He will wipe every tear from their eyes,

and there shall be no more death or mourning,
wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away.”

The one who sat on the throne said,

“Behold, I make all things new.”

The word of the Lord.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

Hope does not disappoint,
because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts
through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For Christ, while we were still helpless,
yet died at the appointed time for the ungodly.

Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person,
though perhaps for a good person
one might even find courage to die.

But God proves his love for us
in that while we were still sinners
Christ died for us.

How much more then,
since we are now justified by his blood,
will we be saved through him from the wrath.

Indeed, if, while we were enemies,
we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son,
how much more, once reconciled,
will we be saved by his life.

Not only that, but we also boast of God
through our Lord Jesus Christ,
through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

Brothers and Sisters,

We even boast of our afflictions,
knowing that affliction produces endurance,

And endurance, proven character,
and proven character, hope,

And hope does not disappoint,
because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts
through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For Christ, while we were still helpless,
yet died at the appointed time for the ungodly.

Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person,
though perhaps for a good person
one might even find courage to die.

But God proves his love for us
in that while we were still sinners
Christ died for us.

How much more then,
since we are now justified by his blood,
will we be saved through him from the wrath.

Indeed, if, while we were enemies,
we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son,
how much more, once reconciled,
will we be saved by his life.

Not only that, but we also boast of God
through our Lord Jesus Christ,
through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

If, by the transgression of one person,
death came to reign through that one,
how much more will those who receive
the abundance of grace and of the gift of justification
come to reign in life through the one person Jesus Christ.

In conclusion,
just as through one transgression condemnation came upon all,
so through one righteous act acquittal and life came to all.

For just as through the disobedience of one person
the many were made sinners,
so through the obedience of one
the many will be made righteous.

The law entered in so that transgression might increase but, where sin increased, grace overflowed all the more,
so that, as sin reigned in death,
grace also might reign through justification for eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

Are you unaware that we
who were baptized into Christ Jesus
were baptized into his death?

We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death,
so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of the Father,
we too might live in newness of life.

For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his,
we shall also be united with him in the resurrection.

We know that our old self was crucified with him,
so that our sinful body might be done away with,
that we might no longer be in slavery to sin.

For a dead person has been absolved from sin.

If, then, we have died with Christ,
we believe that we shall also live with him.

We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more;
death no longer has power over him.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

Are you unaware that we
who were baptized into Christ Jesus
were baptized into his death?

We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death,
so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of the Father,

If, then, we have died with Christ,
we believe that we shall also live with him.

We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more;
death no longer has power over him.

The word of the Lord.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

Those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.

For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear,
but you received a spirit of adoption,
through which we cry, "Abba, Father!"

The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God,

and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ,
if only we suffer with him
so that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time
are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us.

For creation awaits with eager expectation
the revelation of the children of God;

for creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord
but because of the one who subjected it, in hope that creation itself would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.

We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now;
and not only that, but we ourselves,
who have the first fruits of the Spirit,
we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption,
the redemption of our bodies.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

If God is for us, who can be against us?

He who did not spare his own Son
but handed him over for us all,
how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?
It is God who acquits us.

Who will condemn?
It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised,
who also is at the right hand of God,
who indeed intercedes for us.

What will separate us from the love of Christ?
Will anguish, or distress, or persecution,
or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?

No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,
nor angels, nor principalities,
nor present things, nor future things, nor powers,

nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

None of us lives for oneself,
and no one dies for oneself.

For if we live, we live for the Lord,
and if we die, we die for the Lord;
so then, whether we live or die,
we are the Lord's.

For this is why Christ died and came to life,
that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God.

For it is written:

“As I live, says the Lord,
every knee shall bend before me,
and every tongue shall give praise to God.”

So then each of us shall give an account of himself to God.

The word of the Lord.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

None of us lives for oneself,
and no one dies for oneself.

For if we live, we live for the Lord,
and if we die, we die for the Lord;
so then, whether we live or die,
we are the Lord's.

For this is why Christ died and came to life,
that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

The word of the Lord.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

Yet we do speak a wisdom to those who are mature,
but not a wisdom of this age,
nor of the rulers of this age who are passing away.

Rather, we speak God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden,
which God predetermined before the ages for our glory,
and which none of the rulers of this age knew;
for if they had known it,
they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

But as it is written:

“What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard,
and what has not entered the human heart,
what God has prepared for those who love him,”
this God has revealed to us through the Spirit.

For the Spirit scrutinizes everything,
even the depths of God.

The word of the Lord.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

Christ has been raised from the dead,
the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

For since death came through a human being,
the resurrection of the dead came also through a human being.

For just as in Adam all die,
so too in Christ shall all be brought to life,

but each one in proper order: Christ the first fruits;
then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ;

then comes the end,
when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father.

For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

The last enemy to be destroyed is death,

for "he subjected everything under his feet."

But when it says that everything has been subjected,
it is clear that it excludes the one who subjected everything to him.

When everything is subjected to him,
then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him,
so that God may be all in all.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

Christ has been raised from the dead,
the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

For since death came through a human being,
the resurrection of the dead came also through a human being.

For just as in Adam all die,
so too in Christ shall all be brought to life,

but each one in proper order: Christ the first fruits;
then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

Behold, I tell you a mystery.

We shall not all fall asleep,
but we will all be changed,
in an instant, in the blink of an eye, at the last trumpet.

For the trumpet will sound,
the dead will be raised incorruptible,
and we shall be changed.

For that which is corruptible
must clothe itself with incorruptibility,

and that which is mortal
must clothe itself with immortality.

And when this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility

and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality,

then the word that is written shall come about:

*Death is swallowed up in victory,
Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?*

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God who gives us the victory
through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

Behold, I tell you a mystery.

We shall not all fall asleep,
but we will all be changed,
in an instant, in the blink of an eye, at the last trumpet.

For the trumpet will sound,
the dead will be raised incorruptible,
and we shall be changed.

Then the word that is written shall come about:

*Death is swallowed up in victory,
Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?*

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God who gives us the victory
through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brothers, be firm, steadfast,
always fully devoted to the work of the Lord,
knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

We know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and place us with you in his presence.

Everything indeed is for you,
so that the grace bestowed in abundance
on more and more people may cause the thanksgiving to overflow for the glory of God.

Therefore, we are not discouraged;
rather, although our outer self is wasting away,
our inner self is being renewed day by day.

For this momentary light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory
beyond all comparison,

as we look not to what is seen but to what is unseen;
for what is seen is transitory,
but what is unseen is eternal.

For we know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent,
should be destroyed,
we have a building from God,
a dwelling not made with hands,
eternal in heaven.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

We know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent,
should be destroyed,
we have a building from God,
a dwelling not made with hands,
eternal in heaven.

So we are always courageous,
although we know
that while we are at home in the body
we are away from the Lord,

For we walk by faith, not by sight.

Yet we are courageous,
and we would rather leave the body
and go home to the Lord.

Therefore, we aspire to please him,
whether we are at home or away.

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ,
so that each one may receive recompense,
according to what he did in the body,
whether good or evil.

The word of the LORD.

A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians:

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
who has blessed us in Christ
with every spiritual blessing in the heavens,
as he chose us in him
before the foundation of the world,
to be holy and without blemish before him.

In love he destined us for adoption to himself
through Jesus Christ,
in accord with the favor of his will.

The word of the Lord.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians:

Our citizenship is in heaven,
and from it we also await a savior,
the Lord Jesus Christ.

He will change our lowly bodies
to conform with his glorified body
by the power that enables him also
to bring all things into subjection to himself.

The word of the Lord.

A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians:

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God,
the firstborn of all creation.

For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth,
the visible and the invisible,
whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers;
all things were created through him and for him.

He is before all things,
and in him all things hold together.

He is the head of the body, the church.

He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead,
that in all things he himself might be preeminent.

For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell,
and through him to reconcile all things for him,
making peace by the blood of his cross
through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

The word of the Lord.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians:

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers,
about those who have fallen asleep,
so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose,
so too will God, through Jesus,
bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord,
that we who are alive,
who are left until the coming of the Lord,
will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep.

For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God,
will come down from heaven,
and the dead in Christ will rise first.

Then we who are alive, who are left,
will be caught up together with them in the clouds
to meet the Lord in the air.

Thus we shall always be with the Lord.

Therefore, console one another with these words.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to Timothy:

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead,
a descendant of David:

such is my gospel, for which I am suffering,
even to the point of chains, like a criminal.

But the word of God is not chained.

Therefore, I bear with everything
for the sake of those who are chosen,
so that they too may obtain
the salvation that is in Christ Jesus,
together with eternal glory.

This saying is trustworthy:

If we have died with him
we shall also live with him;

if we persevere
we shall also reign with him.

But if we deny him
he will deny us.

If we are unfaithful
he remains faithful,
for he cannot deny himself.

The word of the LORD.

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to Timothy:

I am already being poured out like a libation,
and the time of my departure is at hand.

I have competed well; I have finished the race;
I have kept the faith.

From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me,
which the Lord, the just judge,
will award to me on that day,

and not only to me,
but to all who have longed for his appearance.

The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat
and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom.

To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

A Reading from the first Letter of Saint John:

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.

Yet so we are.

The reason the world does not know us
is that it did not know him.

Beloved, we are God's children now;
what we shall be has not yet been revealed.

We do know that when it is revealed
we shall be like him,
for we shall see him as he is.

The word of the Lord.

A Reading from the first Letter of Saint John:

We know that we have passed from death to life
because we love our brothers.

Whoever does not love remains in death.

Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer,
and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him.

The way we came to know love
was that he laid down his life for us;

So we ought to lay down our lives
for our brothers and sisters.

The word of the LORD.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew:

When he saw the crowds, Jesus went up the mountain,
and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.

He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.
Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew:

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth,
where moth and decay destroy,
and thieves break in and steal.

But store up treasures in heaven,
where neither moth nor decay destroys,
|nor thieves break in and steal.

For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.

The lamp of the body is the eye.

If your eye is sound, your whole body will be filled with light;
but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be in darkness.

And if the light in you is darkness, how great will the darkness be.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew:

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find;
knock and the door will be opened to you.

For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds;
and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

Which one of you would hand his son a stone
when he asks for a loaf of bread,
or a snake when he asks for a fish?

If you then, who are wicked,
know how to give good gifts to your children,
how much more will your heavenly Father
give good things to those who ask him.

“Do to others whatever you would have them do to you.
This is the law and the prophets.

“Enter through the narrow gate;
for the gate is wide and the road broad that leads to destruction,
and those who enter through it are many.

How narrow the gate and constricted the road that leads to life.
And those who find it are few.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew:

At that time Jesus said in reply,

“I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth,
for although you have hidden these things
from the wise and the learned
you have revealed them to the childlike.

Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.

All things have been handed over to me by my Father.
No one knows the Son except the Father,
and no one knows the Father except the Son
and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.

Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,
for I am meek and humble of heart;
and you will find rest for your selves.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew:

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples:

“The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins
who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.
Five of them were foolish and five were wise.

The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps.

Since the bridegroom was long delayed,
they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

At midnight, there was a cry,
‘Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’

Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps.

The foolish ones said to the wise,
‘Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.’

But the wise ones replied,
‘No, for there may not be enough for us and you.
Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.’

While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him.
Then the door was locked.

Afterwards the other virgins came and said,
‘Lord, Lord, open the door for us!’

But he said in reply,
‘Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.’

Therefore, stay awake,
for you know neither the day nor the hour.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew:

When the Son of Man comes in his glory,
and all the angels with him,
he will sit upon his glorious throne,

and all the nations will be assembled before him.
And he will separate them one from another,
as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

Then the king will say to those on his right,
‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father;
Inherit the kingdom prepared for you
from the foundation of the world.

For I was hungry, and you gave me food,
I was thirsty, and you gave me drink,
a stranger and you welcomed me,

naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me,
in prison and you visited me.’

Then the righteous* will answer him and say, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you,
or thirsty and give you drink?

When did we see you a stranger and welcome you,
or naked and clothe you?

When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?’

And the king will say to them in reply, ‘Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine,
you did for me.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark:

People were bringing children to Jesus
that he might touch them,
but the disciples rebuked them.

When Jesus saw this he became indignant
and said to them,

“Let the children come to me;
do not prevent them,
for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

Amen, I say to you,
whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child
will not enter it.

Then he embraced them and blessed them,
placing his hands on them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark:

At noon darkness came over the whole land
until three in the afternoon.

And at three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice,
"Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which is translated,
"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Some of the bystanders who heard it said,
"Look, he is calling Elijah."

One of them ran, soaked a sponge with wine, put it on a reed,
and gave it to him to drink, saying,
"Wait, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down."

Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.

The veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom.
When the centurion who stood facing him
saw how he breathed his last he said,
"Truly this man was the Son of God!"

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary, the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so that they might go and anoint him.

Very early when the sun had risen, on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb. They were saying to one another,
"Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?"

When they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back;
it was very large.

On entering the tomb they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a white robe, and they were utterly amazed.

He said to them, "Do not be amazed!
You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified.
He has been raised; he is not here.
Behold, the place where they laid him.

+ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus journeyed to a city called Nain,
and his disciples and a large crowd accompanied him.

As he drew near to the gate of the city,
a man who had died was being carried out,
the only son of his mother, and she was a widow.
A large crowd from the city was with her.

When the Lord saw her, he was moved with pity for her and said to her, "Do not weep."

He stepped forward and touched the coffin;
at this the bearers halted, and he said,
"Young man, I tell you, arise!"

The dead man sat up and began to speak,
and Jesus gave him to his mother.

Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, exclaiming,
"A great prophet has arisen in our midst,"
and "God has visited his people."

This report about him spread through the whole of Judea
and in all the surrounding region.

+ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Gird your loins and light your lamps
and be like servants
who await their master’s return from a wedding,
ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks.

whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival.

Amen, I say to you,

he will gird himself, have them recline at table,
and proceed to wait on them.

And should he come in the second or third watch

and find them prepared in this way,

blessed are those servants.

Be sure of this:

if the master of the house had known the hour

You also must be prepared,

for at an hour you do not expect,
the Son of Man will come.”

+ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

When they came to the place called the Skull,
they crucified Jesus and the criminals there,
one on his right, the other on his left.

“Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us.”

The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply,
“Have you no fear of God,
for you are subject to the same condemnation?
And indeed, we have been condemned justly,
for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes,
but this man has done nothing criminal.”

Then he said,
“Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom.”

He replied to him,
“Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

+ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

It was now about noon

and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon because of an eclipse of the sun.

Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle.

Jesus cried out in a loud voice,

“Father, into your hands I commend my spirit”;
and when he had said this he breathed his last.

Now there was a virtuous and righteous man named Joseph who, though he was a member of the council,

went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

After he had taken the body down,

he wrapped it in a linen cloth
and laid him in a rock-hewn tomb
in which no one had yet been buried.

While they were puzzling over this,

+ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Now that very day

two of them were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred.

And it happened that while they were conversing and debating,

Jesus himself drew near and walked with them,
but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him.

He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?"

They stopped, looking downcast.

One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply,

"Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?"

And he replied to them, "What sort of things?"

They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him.

But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel;
and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place.

Some women from our group, however, have astounded us:

they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body;
they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive.

Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see."

And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are!

How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke!
Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and enter into his glory?"

Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets,
he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the scriptures.

As they approached the village to which they were going,
he gave the impression that he was going on farther.

But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.

And it happened that, while he was with them at table,
he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them.

With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him,
but he vanished from their sight.

Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the scriptures to us?"

So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!"

Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Jesus said to Nicodemus:

“No one has gone up to heaven except the one who has come down from heaven,
the Son of Man.

And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert,
so must the Son of Man be lifted up,

so that everyone who believes in him
may have eternal life.”

For God so loved the world
that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him
might not perish but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world,
but that the world might be saved through him.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

+ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

Jesus answered the Jews and said to them:

“Amen, amen, I say to you,
whoever hears my word and believes in the one who sent me
has eternal life and will not come to condemnation,
but has passed from death to life.

Amen, amen, I say to you,
the hour is coming and is now here
when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God,
and those who hear will live.

For just as the Father has life in himself,
so also he gave to his Son the possession of life in himself.

And he gave him power to exercise judgement,
because he is the Son of Man.

Do not be amazed at this,
because the hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and will come out,
those who have done good deeds to the resurrection of life,
but those who have done wicked deeds
to the resurrection of condemnation.”

Jesus said to the crowd:

“Everything that the Father gives me will come to me,

but the will of the one who sent me.

And this is the will of the one who sent me,
that I should not lose anything of what he gave me,
but that I should raise it on the last day.

that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him
may have eternal life,
and I shall raise him on the last day.”

Jesus said to the crowd:

“I am the living bread that came down from heaven;
whoever eats this bread will live forever;
and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”

The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying,

“How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

Jesus said to them,

“Amen, amen, I say to you,
unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood,
you do not have life within you.

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life,
and I will raise him on the last day.

For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.

Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me.

This is the bread that came down from heaven.

Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died,

When Jesus arrived in Bethany,

Now Bethany was near Jerusalem,
only about two miles away.

Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary
to comfort them about their brother.

When Martha heard that Jesus was coming,
she went to meet him,
but Mary sat at home.

Martha said to Jesus,
“Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.
But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you.”

Jesus said to her,
“Your brother will rise.”

Martha said to him,
“I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day.”

Jesus told her,
“I am the resurrection and the life;
whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live,
and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.
Do you believe this?

“Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.”

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John:

When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him,
she fell at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here,
my brother would not have died.”

When Jesus saw her weeping
and the Jews who had come with her weeping,
he became perturbed and deeply troubled,
and said, “Where have you laid him?”

They said to him, “Sir, come and see.”

And Jesus wept.

So the Jews said, “See how he loved him.”

But some of them said,
“Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man
have done something so that this man would not have died?”

So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb.
It was a cave and a stone lay across it.

Jesus said, “Take away the stone.”

Martha, the dead man’s sister, said to him, “Lord, by now there will be a stench;
he has been dead for four days.”

Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?”

So they took away the stone.

And Jesus raised his eyes and said,
“Father, I thank you for hearing me.
I know that you always hear me;
but because of the crowd here I have said this,
that they may believe that you sent me.”

And when he had said this,
he cried out in a loud voice,
“Lazarus, come out!”

The dead man came out,
tied hand and foot with burial bands,
and his face was wrapped in a cloth.
So Jesus said to them,
“Untie him and let him go.”

Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done
began to believe in him.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John:

Jesus spoke to his disciples and said,
“The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

Amen, amen, I say to you,
unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies,
it remains just a grain of wheat;
but if it dies, it produces much fruit.

Whoever loves his life loses it,
and whoever hates his life in this world
will preserve it for eternal life.

Whoever serves me must follow me,
and where I am, there also will my servant be.

The Father will honor whoever serves me.

The word of the Lord.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John:

Jesus said to his disciples:

You have faith in God; have faith also in me.

In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places.

If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?

And if I go and prepare a place for you,

I will come back again and take you to myself,
so that where I am, you also may be.

Where I am going, you know the way.”

Thomas said to him,

“Master, we do not know where you are going,
how can we know the way?”

Jesus said to him,

“I AM the way and the truth and the life.
No one comes to the Father except through me.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John:

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said:

Father, the hour has come.

Give glory to your son so that your son may glorify you,

just as you gave him authority over all people,

so that he may give eternal life to all you gave him.

Now this is eternal life, that they should know you,

the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ.

I pray not only for my disciples,

but also for those who will believe in me through their word,

so that they all may be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you,

that they also may be in us,

that the world may believe that you sent me.

Father, they are your gift to me.

I wish that where I am they also may be with me,

that they may see my glory that you gave me,

because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

Righteous Father, the world also does not know you,

but I know you, and they know that you sent me.

I made known to them your name and I will make it known,

that the love with which you loved me

may be in them and I in them.”

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John:

So they took Jesus, and carrying the cross himself,
he went out to what is called the Place of the Skull,
in Hebrew, Golgotha.

There they crucified him, and with him two others,
one on either side, with Jesus in the middle.

Standing by the cross of Jesus
were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala.

When Jesus saw his mother
and the disciple there whom he loved,
he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son."

Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother."
And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.

After this, aware that everything was now finished,
in order that the scripture might be fulfilled,
Jesus said, "I thirst."

There was a vessel filled with common wine.
So they put a sponge soaked in wine on a sprig of hyssop
and put it up to his mouth.

When Jesus had taken the wine,
he said, "It is finished."
And bowing his head, he handed over the spirit.

Now since it was preparation day,
in order that the bodies might not remain on the cross
on the sabbath,
for the sabbath day of that week was a solemn one,
the Jews asked Pilate that their legs be broken and they be taken down.

So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and then of the other one who was crucified with Jesus.

But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead,
they did not break his legs,
but one soldier thrust his lance into his side,
and immediately Blood and water flowed out.

An eyewitness has testified, and his testimony is true;
he knows that he is speaking the truth,
so that you also may come to believe.

For this happened so that the Scripture passage might be fulfilled:
Not a bone of it will be broken.

And again another passage says:
They will look upon him whom they have pierced.

After this, Joseph of Arimathea, secretly a disciple of Jesus for fear of the Jews,
asked Pilate if he could remove the Body of Jesus.

And Pilate permitted it.

So he came and took his Body.

Nicodemus, the one who had first come to him at night,
also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes weighing about one hundred pounds.
